Board Approves $288,000 Bid For Construction

A low bid of $288,000 for construction of 11 new classrooms and other facilities at three Torrance elementary schools was approved by the Board of Education last week.

Atkins and Cowan, Long Beach, were lowest of six bidders. The new classrooms will include three classrooms and a music room at Parkway School, four and a music room at Adams School, and three at Columbia School.

SUN GLASSES

Take off sunglasses at dusk. They should not be used for night driving or while watching television.

Judy Beaver Named As El Camino 'Hearts' Queen

A beautiful brunette freshman at El Camino College yesterday was named as queen of the annual campus Sweethearts Ball held last night.

Judy Beaver, 3423 W. 81st St., Inglewood, a business major at the local school, is a graduate of Hollywood High.

The queen and two princesses, Nancy Newman, Whittier, and Suzanne Murray, Manhattan Beach, were chosen by a vote of the Associated Student Body to reign over the Ball and the associated coronation ceremonies.

Held in honor the Valentine season of hearts and arrows, this year's ball was the 14th annual affair of its kind and was sponsored by the sophomore and freshman classes of the college.

Other runners-up for the honor were Donna Phillips, a physical education major, of Inglewood; Karen Lake, secondary education, Inglewood; and Lesley Dixon, Hermosa Beach.

Starting Date on New Area Shopping Center June 1

Ernest W. Hahn, Inc., contractors for the project, reported that part of the 21-acre shopping center will occupy land on which apartment buildings are already located. The contractor added that plans call for removing 33 of the apartment units to make way for construction.

Also scheduled in the plans will be a 1-acre parking lot and an unusual ranch-style service station.

Architect of the building will be Robert Ainsworth of Pasadena. Nels Ostrem of San Pedro will be project coordinator.

June 1 is the scheduled starting date on construction of a $6,000,000 shopping center near the intersection of Western Ave. and Park Western Drive.

Plans for the project, to be known as Western Plaza East, were reported last week by Jack Marantz and V. P. Kendratief, developers.

Scheduled for the new center are the firms of Von's Markets, a J. J. Newberry Company store, chain drug store, bank and variety shops. Also scheduled for next year will be a two-story professional building.

FINISHING TOUCHES—Smiling Frances Holloway, 8, of 23139 Doris Way, looks as though she might be giving her doll a bottle, but in reality she's gluing the finishing touches on the face of a puppet for a show at the Torrance Arts and Crafts Center. The Center is located at 22730 Lupine Drive. She and other youngsters from puppetry classes at the center will display their work in playlets scheduled Feb. 18, 2 p. m.

Offer of Court Action Against Vandals Studied

Threats of court action proved effective in collections for vandalism at Torrance schools, according to a report to the Board of Education last week.

After the board decided last fall to take action against parents of students found engaging in school vandalism, parents of all but one guilty student paid up. A court judgment was secured in the other case.

During the last quarter, vandalism and thefts cost the district $490, according to the report. Damage was at 13 schools, with broken windows and fire extinguishers most common. Most common thefts were of food and athletic equipment.
